Automated Logic Corporation Recognizes Top Performing Field Offices

KENNESAW, Ga., May 20, 2011 – Automated Logic Corporation, a leading provider of innovative building management solutions that maximize energy efficiency while ensuring occupant comfort, recently honored its top distribution field offices at its Annual Meeting in Los Angeles. The awards presented were based on superior field performance, sustained yearly growth, excellence in customer service, reputation in the market, and willingness to learn and develop.

“We’re proud of the accomplishments of our field offices,” said Lauren Kolb, president of Automated Logic. “These companies consist of some of the most talented and respected individuals in our industry, and it’s nice to recognize them for their hard work and dedication.”

The Dealer of the Year award was presented to InterCon Automation located in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. During the 10 years InterCon has been an Automated Logic dealer, they have consistently exceeded expectations year after year, achieving 33% market share in 2010. They have outperformed the competition in a region that was dominated by top competitors prior to their establishment in the market. The company is well diversified in multiple vertical market segments and has a professional, well-trained team that excels at building solid customer relationships.

The Project of the Year award was presented to Wisch and Jackson -Palm Beach, Florida, for the Palm Beach County School District (PBCSD) project. The 11th largest school district in the U.S., PBCSD is committed to sustainability and creating green learning environments. The district’s partnership with Wisch & Jackson led to sustainable solutions for its building control system, which included the installation of educational touch screen kiosks in Pine Jog Elementary School, one of the first LEED certified schools in Florida. Wisch and Jackson's expertise, professionalism and excellent customer service has lead to this long-term partnership that has continued over 20 years.

Top sales awards for outstanding performance in 2010 were presented in three market sizes. Recipients were Automated Logic – Houston, located in Pasadena, Texas, Harris Integrated Solutions, located in West Columbia, South Carolina, and PC Automated Controls, located in El Paso, Texas.
